News and Non-News

Good news, to reverse an old saying, is no news.

That's not true, no matter which way you turn it. The news media are constantly under attack from those who say, inaccurately, that "news" is always about crime and war and riots and disasters of every sort, never about "good" things. Those who believe this contention somehow overlook front page stories about moon landings, the steady progress against cancer and other diseases-human achievements of infinite variety.

The trouble with this particular breed of critic is that he doesn't know what news is. A spectacular example is the fellow out in California who decided to publish a "newspaper" with nothing in it but "good news." The very first edition, which came out some 16 months ago, enlightened its readership thus in a front page story: "In the United States last year, 196,459,483 citizens did not commit a criminal offense, 4,896,720 college students did not participate in a riot or student demonstration and 201,489,710 citizens did not use illegal drugs."

It saddens us but doesn't surprise us to be reminded that few people want to read about what others don't do. The "Good News Paper" folded recently. —Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution.

Shover Road Area Rezoned for Housing

The City Directors read an ordinance rezoning from R-1 (residential), single family residence, to R-2 residential, approximately 16 acres on Shover Road to provide for a building project of 25 duplex housing units. The housing units will be operated by the Hope Housing Authority.

The Board read a request from the school board asking that 40 acres of land on Rocky Mound road, which is owned by the city, be made available to the city as a future site for a Junior High School. This property was acquired by the Hope Water & Light Commission as a possible industrial site and the city officials referred the request to the Hope Water & Light Commission.

Officials voted to purchase 12 new chairs for the city courtroom and to have the conference table used in the courtroom rebuilt and refinished. The City Directors have discussed refurbishing the courtroom for quite a long time and finally decided to purchase chairs of the type used in the Chamber of Commerce conference room which can be bought for $47.50 each.

In other action, the Directors authorized the City Manager to approve bids on a new asphalt distributor for the street department and a new truck chassis on which the equipment will be mounted.

Mayor Sam Strong was out of the city and assistant mayor Melvin Thrash conducted the meeting.

An appeal from a ruling of the Planning & Zoning Commission, rezoning some property on Edgewood was scheduled for this date. The attorney representing the people interested in rezoning the property, and some of the people who wanted to be heard on the appeal could not be present and the hearing was rescheduled for the next regular meeting of the city directors which will be on May 9.

School Gymnasium Scene During Recent Party

This was the scene at 11:15 p.m., Friday, April 14, when Hope City Police answered a disturbance call to the Yerger Junior High gymnasium where a dance-party was in progress.

Those at the party told police it was a private affair. City Police informed school officials of what was going on.

At midnight, the same night, City Police were again called to the gymnasium by a report that a man with a gun was threatening persons there. State, City and Local Police dispersed more than 300 persons and closed the gymnasium.

Nixon to Make Report on Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP) — With Henry A. Kissinger freshly returned from a secret Moscow trip and the Paris peace talks resuming Thursday, President Nixon gives the nation a Vietnam report tonight including his decision on U. S. troop levels there after May 1.

U. S. forces in South Vietnam currently are slated to drop to 69,000 by the end of this month. This nears the residual-force strength of 25,000 to 35,000 men Nixon has indicated will stay on until Hanoi frees American prisoners.

Besides scheduling the widely awaited presidential radio-TV address for 10 p.m. EST, the White House also: —Announced U. S. and Saigon negotiators will return to the Paris parley Thursday, with their first item to be "discussion of measures which will put an end to the flagrant North Vietnamese invasion of South Vietnam." —Disclosed presidential adviser Kissinger flew secretly to Moscow last week for four days of talks with Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev and other Soviet leaders. During this April 24-25 period the White House was saying Kissinger was with Nixon at the President's Camp David, Md., mountain retreat.

Kissinger told newsmen Tuesday that he had ranted over major U. S.-Soviet issues in preparing for Nixon's May 22-23 visit to the Soviet Union. These included Vietnam. The administration has served notice Nixon intends to take up the question of restraint on Vietnam with Brezhnev, and it has chastized the Kremlin publicly for Soviet shipments of heavy arms used by North Vietnam in its offensive.

Administration sources discouraged speculation, however, that Kissinger made any deal with Brezhnev for resumption of the Paris talks or that he had hurried to Moscow for fear that rising U. S.-Soviet friction over Vietnam would collapse the summit conference. —Tonight's announcement will be Nixon's eighth on future troop levels, since he started pulling U. S. forces out of Vietnam in June 1969. About 543,000 GIs were in South Vietnam then.

Nixon Signs

WASHINGTON (AP) President Nixon signed into law Tuesday a bill extending for one year the government's job-training programs under the Manpower Act. They otherwise would have expired June 30.

A rider to the bill would permit 700 school districts to continue to receive impact-aid funds on the basis of federal post offices within their boundaries for the current fiscal year and 1973. These buildings have been transferred to the new independent corporation running the postal service and are to either be considered federal property for purposes of the impact aid program.

Enemy Threatens to Cut South Vietnam in Half

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese forces threatened today to cut South Vietnam in half, posed a new tank challenge in Cambodia 55 miles northwest of Saigon and shot down another big U. S. transport plane at An Loc.

Six American crewmen were missing. The U. S. Command said 24 American helicopters and 18 planes have been lost since the North Vietnamese offensive began 27 days ago, with 25 Americans killed, eight wounded and 41 missing in the air losses. Spokesmen said these figures do not include Americans killed or wounded in aircraft that have been damaged but not destroyed.

With the western highlands province of Kontum already seriously threatened, Communist troops continued their push into coastal Binh Dinh Province 75 miles to the east and cut Highway 1, the country's main north-south road. Highway 14 north of Kontum and east-west Highway 19 leading from the coast to Pleiku were severed earlier.

HHH and McGovern Bury Muskie

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Political Writer
Sen. George McGovern, triumphant in Massachusetts, and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, the Pennsylvania victor, joined political battle today after dealing a devastating one-two blow to the presidential campaign of Sen. Edmund S. Muskie.

But the senator from Maine said in defeat that his rivals for White House nomination will "have to fight like hell to take it away" from him.

Muskie finished a far-back second in Massachusetts, and managed only a fourth-place showing, close behind McGovern in Pennsylvania, where he concentrated his campaign.

Cossatot Hearing Set

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — U. S. District Court Judge G. Thomas Eisele met Tuesday with attorneys in the lawsuit over the Gilliam Dam project on the Cossatot River to plan probably what will be the last hearing in the case in district court.

The hearing is set for Thursday, and Eisele will consider a motion by Army Engineers that Eisele lift a year-long injunction against further construction on the project.

The injunction was issued in February 1971 on ground that the engineers had not thoroughly explored the environmental consequences of the project. Last January the engineers submitted a lengthy environmental impact statement on the project and at the same time petitioned Eisele to lift the injunction.

Eisele has indicated he probably will reject the environmentalists' arguments against lifting the injunction, but he said Tuesday he wanted to make sure that a full record was made for possible appeal purposes. Eisele has said he hopes to reach a final decision by May 1.

After the committees have been formed a proposed schedule of events will be offered by the chairman for the committees to consider and adopt if they see fit. The program will be concluded when Secretary of State, Kelly Bryant, will bring to the committees the benefit of many hours of research by his staff on the formation and early history of Hope. This will then be turned over to the Historical Committee as the start of work.

Events to be offered by the Chairman, Haskell Jones, for the observance of the centennial year starting September 1974, through August 1975, include: A.I.C. Sporting Events, football, baseball and basketball games, chicken barbecue, beef barbecue, two train trips, one West, one South, a major religious observance, an antique fair, a square dance festival, an industrial exhibit, an agricultural fair, and the establishment of a permanent museum to be known as Hope's House of History. That time again, 7:00 p.m. Tuesday, May 2, Hope City Hall. Come and take a job on the committee of your choice.

From Apollo 16

Space News Conference

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — The Apollo 16 astronauts hold a news conference from 100,000 miles in space today to report first-hand on their moon exploration.

The late afternoon conference is the only major item for the astronauts on their last full day in space before they land on Thursday.

In the South Pacific, where the carrier Ticonderoga waits to recover the astronauts, the weather forecast for the 2:44 p.m. splashdown time Thursday calls for unlimited visibility except for a few thunderheads, seas of 1 to 3 feet, light winds and a temperature of 84 degrees.

Duke W. Young, Charles M. Duke Jr. and Thomas K. Mattingly II devote most of the day to monitoring systems, taking stellar navigation readings and resting for their homcoming at the end of 11 days away from earth.

During the half-hour news conference, a capsule communicator will read to newsmen prepared by them covering the flight from the Manned Spacecraft Center. It will be televised to Mission Control.

Young and Duke were to be questioned about their report Monday that they did not think they found any volcanic rock "to speak of." That had been the main goal as they conducted man's first exploration in the moon's highlands, which constitute nearly 80 per cent of the surface.

But Mission Control geologists who watched on television and listened to the moon walkers' descriptions are certain they are bringing back volcanic evidence in the 245 pounds of rocks and soil they collected.

The consensus here is that volcanic processes during the early history of the moon took a different form than those on earth and Young and Duke thus were unable to recognize rocks as volcanic.

On Monday, Mattingly took a deep space walk 199,000 miles from home. He eased through the open hatch of the command ship Casper and moved on handrails 15 feet to the rear of the spacecraft to recover more than a mile of film from two cameras.

The cameras charted a large area of the moon from lunar orbit including a section of the backside which is hidden from earth's view.

Showers Expected

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The beautiful weather of the past few days was expected to end today in Arkansas as showers and thundershowers move into the state from the west.

The National Weather Service said high clouds moved into the state late Tuesday and early today most of the northern portion of Arkansas was under a cloud cover. Cloudy skies were expected to spread over the entire state today and tonight with a possibility of showers beginning tonight.

A high pressure center over the Great Lakes continued to feed cool air into the state lowering temperatures Tuesday night to the low or mid 40s in the eastern sections. Little temperature change was expected today or Thursday. It was expected to be a little warmer tonight, however.

Drug Abuse Program Set

D.C. and Vi Jensen, founders of "Wake Up America Association", will be with the Central Baptist Church for a series of services on the problems of Drug and Narcotic Abuse on May 1, 2, and 3.

The Jensens have been with the Central Baptist Church before and many in this area are familiar with their work in which they use films, documentaries, and other related materials. They have spoken in churches, school assemblies, P.T.A. meetings, Radio and T.V. broadcasts, and other services. The Jensens have dedicated their lives to the work of helping the youth, adults, parents, and the general public who may be involved either directly or indirectly in the Drug Abuse Culture.

Services at the Central Baptist Church will begin each evening at 7:30. Everyone is invited to attend. If you know someone with a drug problem, you will be doing them a favor to tell them about these services. Come yourself and learn how to help them.

Survey Shows Big Spread in State Prices of Food

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A survey conducted in supermarkets in Little Rock, North Little Rock, Fayetteville and Malvern shows a spread of 12 per cent in the total cost of the items from the least expensive to the costliest.

The survey was conducted April 17-18 by the Arkansas Consumer Research volunteers on 50 items in 30 Little Rock-North Little Rock, four Fayetteville and three Malvern supermarkets. The items included meats, produce, canned goods, staples, dairy products, frozen foods and nonfood grocery items such as toothpaste and detergent. From a low of $25.45 at Kmart in Little Rock, the identical items ranged up to $28.52 at the average at three Model Markets. Weingarten's and Safeway Stores averaged $25.96 and $26.07 respectively. Warehouse Food Stores was fourth at $26.33, followed by Kroger at $26.67 and Thriftway at $28.17. Fred Cowan, head of the private, non-profit ACR, who was assisted by about 20 housewife volunteers, said the independent ownership of the Thriftway and Model Markets, which generally are smaller than the chains, "probably accounts for their higher prices."

Other findings of the survey included: — There was no evidence that prices in stores of poorer sections of Little Rock and North Little Rock were higher than in stores in more affluent sections.

— Grocery prices, contrary to widespread belief, are not higher at Fayetteville than Little Rock but are, in fact, somewhat lower. The total package cost $26.63 at Fayetteville, eight cents below the Little Rock cost. Malvern prices were $27.90.

Wide variances in prices were found. Identical packages of 100 Bayer aspirins ranged from 69 cents at Kroger and Weingarten to $1.17 at Model Markets. Kraft mayonnaise ranged from 65 cents at Warehouse to 86 cents at Model. Oreo cookies were 53 cents everywhere but at Thriftway where they were 2 cents higher. The survey made no allowance for difference in quality among products, such as meats, nor did it consider such factors as convenience, personalized service, cleanliness, trading stamps, etc.

— That stores be more careful about advertising that "their prices are the lowest in town," unless they can back up the claim.

— That food stores institute reforms "designed to aid rather than confuse the shopper in selecting food," such as unit pricing, nutritional labeling and open dating.

— That volunteers in other cities in the state join ACR in making surveys

Food Prices Dip, Farmers Losers

By DON KENDALL
AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Supermarket food prices dropped 0.4 per cent in March, the first dip in five months, but farmers—not the middlemen—absorbed the decrease, the Agriculture Department announced today.

Last Friday the Bureau of Labor Statistics reported retail food prices continued to rise in March but only by 0.1 per cent, a much slower pace than earlier.

Anniversary Party

Tickets are now ready for the 25th Anniversary Party of Radio Station KXAR. Only 600 tickets were printed and 400 of those will be distributed to KXAR's sponsors, advertising agencies, and staff. A limited number of 200 will be made available to the public at the price of $2.00 each and are available at Anderson Diner and KXAR.

Dinner service will begin at 6:30 p.m. and continue until 7:30. Red Goodner and Band will perform starting at 7:00 p.m. and will also play for T. Tommy who is expected to sing a song or two before he begins speaking and visiting with the audience.

General Manager, Haskell Jones, says that every person who attends will receive a souvenir gift from KXAR. There will also be drawings for several small gifts plus two $25.00 gift certificates to be spent with KXAR's sponsors. That date again, Friday, May 19, 6:30 p.m., Fair Ground Coliseum for KXAR's 25th Anniversary Party.

said, however, that the BLS figures were based on surveys taken during the first week of March while its new report was for a "market basket" list of food items during the entire month.

Officials said "substantially lower" returns to farmers for meat animals and fresh vegetables were the main reason for the retail price drop.

Although the prices farmers received declined, higher middleman costs for transporting, processing and selling food to consumers ate up most of the reduction, the report showed.

The entire market basket, theoretically enough food to keep a typical family for an entire year, cost an annual rate of $1,292 in March, down $5 from a record high in February.

Of that, the "farm value" was $502 for the month, a $14 cut from February. The middleman share, however, rose $9 to $790 in March, the report said.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

Hair Is A Private Affair

Dear Helen:

My husband, at 28, is prematurely balding. He bought a hair piece last year and we think it looks great. At over $200, it should!

We haven't made a big secret of this, but most of our friends and relatives don't mention what looks so natural: it's a part of Dan.

...All except this one woman who, when recent acquaintances are around, always manages to give Dan a "compliment" on his new hair. Maybe she's just tactless, but I detect a smug look on her face when she sees a few people are surprised. Could be she's jealous, as her husband could stand some improvements, too. And so could she, in spite of a dye job and false eyelashes.

Telling her to cool it might only inspire her to more remarks. She's the type. What's a good, clever comeback?

HAIRASSED

Dear Hairrased:

Why doesn't your husband, while acknowledging her "compliments" look her deep in the eyes and say, "Thanks, luv, but did you know your false eyelash is flapping?" Or perhaps YOU could note her new dye job.

A few allusions to HER "transformations" should get the message across. —H.

Dear Helen:

Years ago my wife was a sweet, devoted family woman. I may have taken her for granted, until the "affair" at her office cost her job.

Since then I have tried to give her all the things that might have been lacking: love, attention, compliments, the wine-and-dine bit. I even do most of the home chores and cooking, as she has a new job now.

But she rejects me, says we're too old to be "love-dovey," and she doesn't want affection. Her work is all-important to her. I'm scorned and ridiculed. Yet I still love and want her.

We tried a marriage counselor. He charged $400, and my wife said he was crazy.

Since she all but throws me out of the house, I've been going to a club where I've met a widow I admire very much. Things are still cool, but momentum could gather very easy. She's well off, and is used to the country club set, while I'm just an average guy. I'm flattered—and attracted!

But my marriage of 23 years means a lot to me. Why does a man keep on wanting a woman who seemingly hates him? I've never been unfaithful. My wife has, though I never mention it. Should I keep a perfect track record, or try for the next best thing? —UNDECIDED

DEAR UN-

Why not ask your wife? Perhaps if she realizes she may lose you, she'll start working at her marriage again.

If she doesn't, then perhaps you've drifted so far apart there's no returning. A trial separation might give you both needed time to think. —H.

DEAR HELEN:

I gave our daughter a birthday party and, naturally, she blew out the candles on her cake. One of the mothers present wouldn't let her son eat any of the cake because of germs! She said blowing out candles can deposit them all over the frosting and she couldn't take chances. Our Cindy didn't even have a cold!

Isn't this too much? —BURNED UP

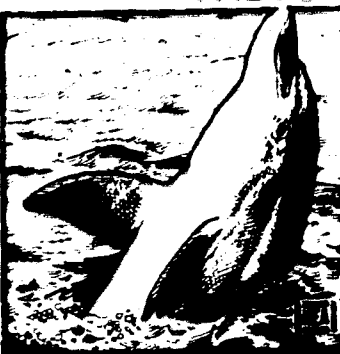

DEAR BURNED:

A mother this health-conscious shouldn't have allowed her son to attend the party: Think of all those nasty, swarming germs each time a kid breathes his way!

...Poor boy! —H.

Aaron Gets No. 642

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Home run No. 642 was a little more tasty for Hank Aaron. It was dished up by Bob Gibson.
"That's probably the last fast ball I'll see from him this year," said Aaron after his two-run shot helped the Atlanta Braves bomb the St. Louis Cardinals 9-3 Tuesday night.
Gibson, who rarely grooves one for hitters, threw one down the middle on an apparent "take" pitch, a 3-0 count.
"He was just trying to put it down," said Aaron. "You've got to take advantage of Gibby when he throws one like that."
The home run, Aaron's third this year, moved him another step closer to Babe Ruth's lifetime record of 714. The Braves' star currently is in third place, four behind San Francisco's Willie Mays.
In the other National League games, the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the Cincinnati Reds 52 in 13 innings; the Houston Astros trimmed the Chicago Cubs 5-4; the New York Mets beat the San Diego Padres 2-1; the Los Angeles Dodgers turned back the Montreal Expos 6-1 and the Philadelphia Phillies blanked the San Francisco Giants 3-0.
Aaron's two-run blast gave the Braves a 6-0 lead after two innings. Earl Williams highlighted a four-run rally in the first with a two-run shot over the left field fence.
Aaron, coming out of an early slump, has collected five hits in his last three games and raised his average to .176.
The Pirates won their game with a dramatic, three-run homer by Richie Hebner with two out in the 13th. Only a couple of thousand fans were left by that time as temperatures dropped into the mid-30s in Three Rivers Stadium.
The blast unlocked a 2-2 tie that existed from the third inning. Roberto Clemente walked to open the 13th, advanced to second after two were out on a wild pitch, and remained there while Manny Sanguillen was intentionally walked so Gibson could get at the left-hitting Hebner.
Pitcher Jerry Reuss scored the winning run in the seventh inning and earned his second victory of the season with a five-hitter as Houston beat Chicago. Lee May slugged his fourth homer for the Astros, a two-run smash in the fourth.

Buzz Capra and Chuck Taylor combined on a six-hitter and the New York Mets bounced from behind with two unearned runs in the seventh inning.
Frank Robinson knocked in two runs with a double and a single and Willie Crawford slammed a home run as Los Angeles turned back Montreal.

Den Sutton allowed five hits for the Dodgers before he was forced from the game when hit by a line drive in the eighth inning.
Steve Carlton shackled San Francisco on one hit—a leadoff single up the middle to Chris Speier—to lead Philadelphia over the Giants. The big left-hander struck out 14 to record his second straight shutout.

Pacers, Stars Close to Great Rivalry

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — The Indiana Pacers are persistently close to running one of professional basketball's great rivalries.
If the Pacers fall to the Utah Stars in tonight's American Basketball Association playoff game, Utah will have its second straight Western Division title at the Pacers' expense.
The Stars, who beat Indiana 4-3 in last year's division series finals and went on to beat the Kentucky Colonels for the ABA crown, lead the current series 3-2.
For the past three years, though, the Indiana-Utah rivalry has been fierce—and close.
In 1970, Indiana, then in the East Division, beat the then Los Angeles Stars for the ABA championship; in 1971, the Pacers edged the Stars by one game for the Western Division title in regular-season play but lost to them in the division playoff finals.
This year, Utah captured the season series from the Pacers, 7-5, and finished 13 games ahead of Indiana going into the playoffs. The Stars polished off Dallas in four straight games, while the Pacers struggled past Denver 4-3.
Before this year's playoffs, a one-point difference separated the Stars and Pacers over their previous 31 encounters.
So why Utah's apparent dominance now?
"All our players are champions," said Utah Coach LaDell Anderson, "and they play like it."
So far in the series, the Stars have won the three games played at Salt Lake City and the Pacers have captured the two games in Indiana.
The home-court advantage

Dolphins Pick Up Morrall

MIAMI (AP) — Coach Don Shula of the Miami Dolphins says that in picking up Baltimore's Earl Morrall on waivers he acquired "an intelligent quarterback who's won a lot of ball games for me."
The 37-year-old understudy to Johnny Unitas was acquired from the Colts for the $100 waiver price Tuesday. He will join George Mira, Jim Del Gaizo and rookie Craig Curry in the struggle to win the back-up job to the Dolphins' Bob Griese.
Morrall's 26 touchdown passes in 1968 gained him the most valuable player award and led the Colts, under Shula, to the National Football League championship.
Morrall, who will turn 38 next month, was paid an estimated $65,000 by the Colts last year, and no NFL player can be cut more than 10 per cent.

Hope Star SPORTS Travs Waltz to Win

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Left-hander Al Hrabosky baffled the Alexandria Aces on two hits Tuesday night as the Arkansas Travelers waltzed to a 10-0 Texas League victory.
The 22-year-old Hrabosky struck out 13.
The Travelers exploded for four runs in the first against lefthander Bill Laxton and that was plenty of cushion for Hrabosky, whose record is 1-0.
With the bases full and two out, Willie James rammed a two-run single into right-center. After a wild pitch, catcher Tony Auferio finished Laxton off by lacing a two-run single to left.
The Travelers kept pecking away at three Alexandria relievers for six more runs.
The Travelers, now on a three-game winning streak, improved their record to 6-5 and moved into second place in the Eastern Division a half game behind Memphis. The Travelers are host to Alexandria again tonight.
In other Texas League games Tuesday night, Shreveport blanked Memphis 3-0 and El Paso outscored Midland 15-14.

Stacy Coasts to Victory

PINEHURST, N. C. (AP) — Hollis Stacy of Savannah, Ga., the 1970 winner, coasted to a 7 and 6 victory over Cindy Bookner of Clarkston, Mich., Tuesday in the opening round of the North-South women's Amateur golf tournament.
Barbara McIntire, the defending champion, has sent word that a prior commitment is keeping her out of this 70th annual tournament.
Miss Stacy's opponent today was Curtis Cup player Lancy Smith of Snyder, N. Y., who had to go 24 holes before scoring a par 3 on the sixth extra hole to win 1 up over Mrs. H. S. Semple of Sewickley, Pa.
Mrs. Semple's daughter, Carol Semple, a co-medalist, won her first-round match over Mrs. A. S. Hart of Short Hills, N. J., 4 and 3.
The other co-medalist, Janet Aulisi of West Caldwell, N. J., won 1 up in 18 holes from Helen Krikland of Cadiz, Ohio, on the 5,910-yard, par 72 No. 2 course of the Pinehurst Country Club.

Smith Leads Americans

ROME (AP) — A trio of top seeds, led by Stan Smith, the U.S. Open champion, entered second-round matches today in the Italian International Tennis Championship.
The top-seeded Smith scored a 6-3, 6-4 opening round triumph Tuesday over Ove Bengtsson of Sweden.
No. 2 seed Ilie Nastase of Romania ousted Niki Kalageropoulos of Greece 6-2, 6-4 and third-seeded Jan Kodes of Czechoslovakia defeated countryman Jiri Hrebec 6-0, 6-3.
Jimmy Connors of Belleville, Ill., downed Antonio Manella of Italy 6-4, 6-0.
In the women's division, Linda Tuero of Metairie, La., turned back Fiorella Bonicelli of Italy 7-5, 6-1.

Texas Golfers Favored

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The University of Texas golf team, winners of the NCAA team title and the Southwest Conference match play tournament, is a heavy favorite to add the SWC stroke play championship to its collection.
The 54-hole medal play tournament will be played here Thursday and Friday with 27 holes scheduled each day at Paradise Valley Country Club. This is the first year a team championship will be decided on a stroke play basis in the SWC.
Each school is allowed to enter five players with the low four 54-hole scores counting toward the team total.
The Texas contingent includes Ben Crenshaw, low amateur in the recent Masters tournament, and Tom Kite, winner of the recent University of

Rebounding a Factor

UNIONDALE, N.Y. (AP) — Rebounding could be the crucial factor if the New York Nets hope to tie their best-of-7 American Basketball Association Eastern Division playoffs tonight against the Virginia Squires.
The Nets trail Virginia 2-1 in the series after Rick Barry's layup with eight seconds left lifted New York to a 119-117 victory Monday night.
The game was close throughout and the Squires mauled the Nets under the boards, 64-44.
"We can't get beat off the boards that way and hope to win again," Nets Coach Lou Carnesecca said after his team reviewed films of the game Tuesday.
Squires rookie standout Julius Erving pulled down 22 rebounds, but was handcuffed in the second half due to the close defensive efforts of Ollie Taylor. Erving poured in 27 points in the first half but managed only four in the second under Taylor's scrutiny.
Barry and John Roche sparked New York with 35 points each while Billy Paulits chipped in 23 and Bill Melchionni, playing for the first time since he suffered a broken hand March 25 against the Utah Stars, added 20.

Wood's Knuckleball Puts AL Hitters Back on Strike

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
Call Marvin Miller. The American League's hitters are back on strike—put there every time Wilbur Wood and his knuckleball go to work for the Chicago White Sox.
Wood has pitched 36 innings this season and allowed exactly one run. Only a two-out homer by Kansas City's Bob Oliver in the bottom of the ninth inning of his first start mars Wood's pitching record so far.
The rubber-armed right-hander hurled his third consecutive shutout Tuesday night, baffling Cleveland 6-0 as the White Sox won their sixth straight game.
In other American League action Tuesday, Oakland edged New York 4-3 in 12 innings, Minnesota blasted Boston 12-0, Kansas City trimmed Baltimore 3-0, California downed Milwaukee 4-1 and Detroit took Texas 4-1.
The White Sox have played nine games this season and Wood has started four of them. He works with two days rest because the knuckler puts virtually no strain at all on his pitching arm.
The AL hitters haven't been putting much of a strain on Wood either. The Indians managed seven hits against the knuckler but three double plays kept Wood out of serious trouble.
Chicago, which dropped its first three games of the season before Wood straightened things out, struck for three runs in the sixth inning, snapping a scoreless duel between the knuckleballer and young Milt Wilcox.
That was plenty for Wood, who got only one run in each of his first two starts this season.
Pitching dominated elsewhere in the AL too.
Dick Drago's two-hitter ended

Bruins Complete Sweep

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Boston's Bruins completed their Stanley Cup semifinal sweep of the St. Louis Blues Tuesday night, and coach Tom Johnson expressed satisfaction for the days off.
The Bruins, had they not thwarted a late Blues comeback 5-3, would be playing St. Louis in Boston Thursday night instead of preparing for a Sunday Cup finals opener against the New York Rangers at home.
"We're glad to get the extra time to get ready," said Johnson, whose team barreled to a 4-1 lead and held on to cap the four-game sweep.
"Johnny Bucyk's got a sore leg from an injury he suffered out there tonight, and we can use the rest."
The 36-year-old Bucyk, not believed seriously hurt, teamed with Phil Esposito in gunning the Bruins to a fast start that made the difference against the Blues.
Esposito ripped home a rebound of Wayne Cashman's shot to put the Bruins in front after only 1:29 and Bucyk's first of two power play goals made it 2-0.
St. Louis trimmed the advantage to 1-0 in the second period.
General Manager Upton Bell said that punter-safety Tom Janik, a nine-year pro, is retiring. Bell also announced the signing of defensive tackle Dick Arndt as a free agent.

Lakers-Knicks Open Playoff

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Lakers feel they have to neutralize Dave DeBusschere. The New York Knicks face the task of stopping Wilt Chamberlain.
The two teams meet tonight in the first game of the best-of-seven series to determine the National Basketball Association champion. The nationally televised game, with Los Angeles blacked out, was scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. (PST) at the Forum.
"DeBusschere is their best man as far as rebounding and shooting outside are concerned," said K.C. Jones, Lakers' assistant coach, of the 6-foot-6 Knick cornerman. "He must be stopped."

Six-foot-7 Laker forward Happy Hairston is matched against DeBusschere, and the Knicks' 6-8 Jerry Lucas at center goes against the 7-1 Chamberlain.
Milwaukee's Kareem Abdul Jabbar, at least an inch taller and a decade younger, couldn't outmuscle an inspired 35-year-old Chamberlain last week.
"There was just no way that series was going to go more than six games," said Fred Schaus, the Lakers' general manager. "I've never seen Wilt quite like that. He grunted at every call."
The Lakers, who have won $124,500 with playoff victories over Chicago, 4-0, and Milwaukee, 4-2, and with the best won-lost percentage in the regular season, could set an NBA record for $224,500 if they beat the Knicks. New York, with $94,500 in winnings for beating Baltimore, 4-2, and Boston 4-1, could add $65,000 by beating the Lakers.
Losers in playoff finals seven times in the past 10 seasons, the Lakers haven't won a title since moving to Los Angeles in 1960.

Leader of Grand Circuit

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Joe O'Brien won three of the five heats and surged into third place Tuesday night in the World Harness Race Drivers Championships with a 158-point showing.
However, Belgium's Gilbert Martens took first place, edging Italy's Giuseppe Guzzinati with a series total of 199 points. Guzzinati has 194, and O'Brien's total for the tour is 175.
Martens, the youngest driver on the tour at 27, moved ahead of Guzzinati by winning the first race behind Mighty Truder and adding two seconds and a fourth for 108 points on the program at Northfield Park.
Guzzinati, driving Claret's Boy, edged Martens behind Fi Fo, to win the second race by a neck. Guzzinati also had a second, a third and a fourth for an evening total of 95 points.
Then O'Brien, of California, put on his finishing surge to challenge the leaders.
Australian Vic Frost scored 70 points with a pair of seconds, one third and a fourth to lift his total to 153. He was followed by New Zealander Peter Wolfenden with a 111-point total. Heve Filion, Canada, 89; Adolf Ubleis, Austria, 55; and Willi Rode, West Germany, 24.

Goodson Bars Law Firm

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP) — Circuit Court Judge John W. Goodson of Texarkana issued an order Tuesday barring the Little Rock law firm of Walker, Kaplan and Mays from practicing law in the 8th Judicial District.

The firm, Arkansas' only integrated law firm, said it would appeal the order.

Goodson recently cited Harry Wood, executive editor of the Texarkana Gazette, for contempt of court for publishing a jury verdict against his orders.

Goodson made the verbal order in Clark County Circuit Court in a pretrial hearing for Gyrone Buckley, 17, a black Arkadelphia High School pupil, who was charged March 16 with inciting to riot.

Buckley's trial was scheduled today with court-appointed attorneys.

Ted Goodloe, a white lawyer in the firm, said he appeared before Goodson to request a continuance of Buckley's trial because the youth's parents indicated they wanted the firm to represent their son. He said he needed time to prepare a defense.

Goodloe said the judge dismissed the court-appointed attorneys but later reappointed them, saying he wanted to hear the case today as scheduled.

Goodloe said that because Goodson made a statement during the hearing concerning the way that the Walker, Kaplan and Mays firm defended its clients, he made a motion to the court asking that the judge disqualify himself from hearing the case. He said the judge had "obvious animosity" toward the firm.

The firm has been representing 31 blacks in Municipal and Circuit Court on charges growing out of the racial fights at the high school March 16 and a later demonstration by about 250 blacks at the county jail.

After making the motion to Goodson about disqualifying himself, Goodloe said the judge became angry with the suggestion that he had bad feelings toward the law firm.

"Then he said we were barred from practicing in his court," Goodloe said.

Want Old Main as It Is Now

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The University of Arkansas Student Senate approved a resolution Tuesday night asking the university administration to reconsider renovation of Old Main.

The administration plans the renovation, which will modernize the interior of the building while leaving the exterior as it is, because of the excess weight being placed on the supports of the 100-year-old structure.

Although the resolution stated the renovation of the "historic landmark" is a worthy goal, the Senate was opposed to the planned method of altering it, because the character of the building will be substantially altered.

The resolution also was opposed to the $4 million expense for the work, money that "could be better spent in restoring the present building and in building a new classroom area."

Moscow, Washington Want Visit

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

It is easy to envisage a set of circumstances that could make it impossible for President Nixon to go through with his visit to Moscow next month.

The latest mission of the peripatetic Henry A. Kissinger can arouse speculation that the current North Vietnamese offensive in South Vietnam could produce such circumstances.

There's evidence that neither Moscow nor Washington wants that to happen. Each seems eager for the summit to go on.

But the way the President's adviser announced his secret four-day stay in Moscow suggested that Vietnam was high on the list of subjects to be probed before the trip.

Moscow continues to advertise a determination to give North Vietnam and the Viet Cong "all necessary aid."

That aid has been enormous.

Initial arrangements for the Nixon visit were made at a time of relative lull in Vietnam. The U.S. troop withdrawal program was proceeding on schedule.

When Nixon was about to visit China, a North Vietnamese military buildup was noted. It might have been expected that an offensive would come to embarrass the Chinese. It didn't happen.

What's going on? Kissinger could well ask. Why an offensive now, when it can embarrass the Russians? It has been going on almost a month and the North Vietnamese are believed capable of sustaining it for yet another month. Should it rack up a clear major victory and establish, say, a capital for the Viet Cong's Provisional Revolutionary Government that would make the Nixon visit almost impossible.

Would Hanoi deliberately set out to embarrass its protector and benefactor? Would the offensive have taken place if Moscow had warned against it? These are puzzling questions.

Kissinger may not have received satisfactory answers. He adopted a Soviet device in describing the talks as "frank," which in Moscow would mean they got nowhere.

Leonid Brezhnev, the party general secretary who is to meet with Nixon, set the tone March 20 in a notably mild speech that dwelt on the Soviet intention to "improve the political climate of the planet."

The Russians want the summit for a variety of weighty reasons, some connected with the economy. Perhaps the Vietnamese did, after all, deliberately set out to put the Kremlin on a spot. Perhaps Hanoi is wary and distrustful of what might happen at the summit. But unless Hanoi can produce a truly dramatic victory, it seems likely that the May summit will be held as planned.

Lottery Drawing Yields Letter N

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The first pupils in the North Little Rock School District to feel the effects of the district's new elementary school desegregation plan this fall are those whose last names begin with the letter "N."

The letter was picked in a lottery-type drawing Tuesday.

The desegregation plan calls for busing of about 2,300 children, both black and white, to 20 elementary schools in the district. Under the plan, each school will have a racial enrollment of about 25 per cent black.

The pupils whose last name begins with an "N" will be bused first. If more pupils are required to meet the quota, then the letters "O," "P," etc. will be used.

Application Is Challenged

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The hearing was to continue today by the state Savings and Loan Board on an application for a savings and loan association at Rogers that involves several men prominent in politics and finances in the state.

The application is for the Northwest Savings and Loan Association, whose stockholders include state Reps. Ivan Rose of Rogers and Boyce Alford of Pine Bluff, state Sens. Olen Hendrix of Prescott, Morris Henry of Fayetteville and Ralph Hudson of Harrison, and Eugene T. Kelley of Rogers, who is former executive secretary to Gov. Dale Bumpers.

Kelley was identified as the largest stockholder in the association with 11 or 12 per cent of the shares.

Opposing the group are Springdale Savings and Loan Association, whose board chairman is Don Tyson, a prominent businessman and supporter of Bumpers; Liberty Savings and Loan Association of Siloam Springs, whose attorney is former state Sen. Russell Elrod of Siloam Springs; First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Rogers, which is represented by Claude Williams, a Republican appointee to the state Alcoholic Beverage Control Board.

Jim Blair of Springdale, general counsel of the state Democratic party, is attorney for the Springdale association.

Robert Crafton, president of the Rogers Chamber of Commerce and president of the organization seeking the application, testified before the S&L Board Tuesday that the growth of Rogers justified another savings and loan. He said the proposed new association would not harm existing financial institutions in the area.

Blair, noting the number of political figures listed as stockholders in the application, asked Crafton whether the applicants anticipated that the association would be allowed in the future to accept deposits of state funds.

Crafton said this matter had not been discussed among

Connally Plays Host to Nixons

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury John B. Connally will play host at his South Texas ranch this weekend to President and Mrs. Nixon.

White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler confirmed published reports Tuesday that the President and First Lady have accepted invitations to visit the ranch near Floresville, Tex., where they will be supper guests Sunday.

Ziegler said the Nixons will spend the night at the Connally ranch but he could give no details for the present about that trip or the President's weekend travel plans.

He did not say whether Nixon will call on former President Lyndon B. Johnson, who is recovering from a heart attack.

The San Antonio Express-News reported Secret Service agents already are in San Antonio and Floresville. It said communications experts are expected to follow in preparation for the President's visit.

Twenty rooms have been reserved in a San Antonio hotel.

A reliable source said the Johnsons are on the guest list for a 200-place dinner at the ranch but it was not known if the former President could attend.

The only Texans the Nixons will meet will be those at the dinner, the newspaper said.

Back Yard Engineers Go Undaunted

By JOHN HOTARD
Associated Press Writer
DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — It seems the dream of many a red-blooded American boy is to get his own pad and lead the life of an unfettered young bachelor.

Sometimes the facts of life are not always black and white, but more gray—a little pain along with the fun.

Like the latest happenings at 2450 Lakeshore, a bachelor pad boasting a view of a lake, a boat, and man's best friend, Joshua.

A paradise.

True, but not without work and a bit of man's ingenuity, blood and tears.

First, a fence for Joshua is now up. Note the key word—"up." a trivial thing, you say. Obviously you have never built a fence.

The Saturday Afternoon Engineering Society (SAES), an organization which does very little engineering, came over to help.

The fence is of five-foot-high welded wire with 2X4-inch mesh and referred to as "no climb" because it is high impossible for a dog to get over it. Certainly not a small Collie like Joshua.

Unfortunately, it was made to be stretched along ground which has almost no slopes.

The SAES was undaunted, however, and stretched it, stapled it and now has a fence as straight as one will find in these parts.

Except.

Regardless of how deep the gate or corner post is sunk in concrete, it will lean if it is not braced.

The fence looks great. It's just that the gates hang at about 65 degrees.

Attention then turned to the boat, a 14-foot knockabout which had not been taken out since being bought second hand.

The motor is one of those which you start by pulling a cord. Starting was by the in-rushing water.

Water? What water, you ask. Well, you see, if a boat's drain plug isn't screwed in, water tends to flow into the boat—in great quantities.

In fact, the engineering society discovered an important scientific law:

Water flows through a half-inch hole faster than a person can bail with a half-gallon jug.

We then were joined by Joshua, who came down to the lake and watched master and friend go boating.

Josh? I thought he was fenced in. Back to the yard for a mental aptitude test for one dog.

It's a simple procedure:

Place dog in enclosure and vigorously call dog, slapping both pantslegs several times.

Dog quickly runs and crawls under the high end of the gate.

Current thinking is that 4X4 posts must be added about every two feet.

Hal Boyle is ill.

Resolution Marks Father's Day

WASHINGTON (AP) — The third Sunday in June of each year officially will be Father's Day. President Nixon on Tuesday signed a congressional resolution which made the designation. The action eliminates the requirement that a resolution making the designation be passed each year.

In Arkansas

Medicare Fees Touchy

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Medical Society planned to consider the touchy subject of variance in medicare fees here today.

If there is a recommendation to pay the same fees all over the state, "the feathers are going to hit the fan because it could result in a reduction for the Fort Smith and Little Rock doctors," a society spokesman said.

Arkansas is divided into five regions for medicare payments with doctors in some areas of the state receiving less in fees than doctors in other areas.

Little Rock and Fort Smith make up region one and its doctors receive the largest payments because of economy and population.

Doctors in other four regions want to combine the state into a single region and make payments uniform.

A committee of the society discussed the question in a closed session Sunday and its recommendation was to be presented to the House of Delegates today.

The matter would have to be approved by the federal government and by Blue Cross-Blue Shield, which handles medicare payments to doctors for the federal government, if the House of Delegates votes to make the payments uniform.

Dr. Francis M. Henderson told the society's convention Tuesday that "if we have to come up with Lee counties all over the country to get health programs to people we are in trouble."

Henderson, director of the Arkansas Health Systems Foundation, also is a member of the advisory council for the controversial Lee County Cooperative Clinic at Marianna, which some whites in the county claim is the source of the area's racial agitation.

Henderson said the Office of Economic Opportunity, which has provided grants to the clinic, has advised him that the clinic "is considered a successful health delivery system."

Henderson disagreed to the extent that while the clinic was bringing health programs to needy persons it also was wrecking the economy of the community, and is opposed by some of the doctors.

"I don't think any health plan can succeed without the consent of the physician and cooperation of the community," Henderson said.

Lawyers Are Liable to Client

By BILL SIMMONS
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The public apparently is increasingly aware that an attorney, like a physician, is liable to his clients for any damage resulting from his negligence and any breach of the professional ethics.

Conclusive statistical data in Arkansas is hard to come by, but some attorneys and insurers state privately that public knowledge of the lawyer's liability and action regarding it is on the upswing.

The state Supreme Court's Committee on Professional Conduct, in an annual report for calendar 1971, said about 350 inquiries were received concerning the committee's purpose and requesting information on how to complain about various attorneys.

The report apparently was the first such annual statement by the committee, which was the successor to the one known earlier as the Bar Rules Committee. Clerk Jimmy Hawkins of the state Supreme Court said no other annual reports of the group were on file with his office.

Paul Johnson Jr. of Little Rock, an attorney, was executive secretary of the committee and filed the report, which said that 90 persons requested personal interviews. Johnson said that only about 25 per cent of the total inquiries related to professional conduct.

Sixty-seven written complaints were made under oath and submitted to the committee, which conducted three formal hearings.

Among the results: one attorney voluntarily surrendered his license, one license was suspended and one disbarment case was filed. The disbarment case was subsequently dismissed from Circuit Court.

The committee also issued five warnings, cautions or reprimands "in cases involving marginal professional misconduct."

Bumpers Labeled "Unavailable"

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Mack Harbour of Paragould, a Democratic candidate for governor, said Tuesday that leaders throughout the state have "legitimate complaints" about the inaccessibility of Gov. Dale Bumpers at the state Capitol.

In a speech at Arkansas College here, Harbour said Bumpers had chosen to label such people as seekers of special favor.

Harbour said Bumpers had made only a feeble attempt to defend himself against charges that the people have been unable to see him.

Harbour said that when leaders from any county or community seek to visit their governor over local problems, "they are seeking attention for their special area, but Arkansas is made up of counties and small communities — the solution of their problems is always in the best interest of Arkansas."

Boswell Accuses Foe of Raising Taxes

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Ted Boswell of Bryant has accused Sen. John L. McClellan of responsibility for a 77 per cent increase in taxes since 1962.

In a speech prepared for television tonight, Boswell said, "Federal spending caused that (tax increase) to happen. You (McClellan) have been responsible in great part for excessive federal spending."

Boswell, Rep. David Pryor, D-Ark., and Foster Johnson of Little Rock are opposing McClellan's bid for re-election to a sixth six-year term.

The Bryant lawyer said that today's revolution is not rich versus poor, young versus old or race versus race, but the taxed against the untaxed.

"The very, very rich, the major American corporations are not paying their share," Boswell said. "You, the ordinary working man and woman, are the ones that are asked to pay the burden."

Boswell accused McClellan of refusal to cooperate with the Senate Judiciary Committee, of which he is a member, in the investigation of alleged improper influence by International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. on the Nixon administration. "His (McClellan's) one vote could have continued the committee's investigation, but he was not there," Boswell said.

He said that McClellan and Pryor for years "have been perfectly willing to support, by their voice and vote, the war in Vietnam," and only in 1971 did they express opposition to it. Boswell said he spoke out against the war when he was running for governor in 1968.

The Bryant lawyer said that crime has increased 176 per cent in the United States since 1960 despite the fact that McClellan has been chairman for many years of a Senate committee that has looked into lawlessness.

Takes Exception to McClellan's Record

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Rep. David Pryor, D-Ark., a candidate for the U. S. Senate, said here Tuesday night that he was going to take exception with the record of Sen. John L. McClellan in a series of speeches beginning in Jonesboro Thursday.

Pryor, Ted Boswell of Bryant and Foster Johnson of Little Rock are opposing McClellan's re-election bid in the Democratic primary.

Pryor said there were two people in the race — one who cares about people and one who has neglected the people of Arkansas. He said the state could not live on brick and mortar alone.

Pryor told a news conference that he will demonstrate to the public conclusively by the May 30 primary the "great discrepancy" in regard to voting records.

The congressman pointed out that in 1936 McClellan opposed the Arkansas River navigation project "when it was introduced by others. A senator is supposed to work for the people...the good Lord put the Arkansas River there, and give the taxpayers the credit for the project. They paid for it — $1.2 million, and remember that the Arkansas River was the last major river to become navigable."

Pryor said that only the top 5 per cent of the state's population, economically, really benefited from McClellan's position in Congress over the years. He said that even though Arkansas is considered by some to be first in power, influence and seniority in Congress, the state ranks last in per capita income.

And, Pryor said, "There is not one regional office in Arkansas for any of the major federal agencies. They are in neighboring states. Where is that power?"

Pryor also said that McClellan had voted against a bill last year that would have given parents with a child in college a $400 income tax exemption.

Pryor also said he felt the Senate race was a two-man race that would for the first time test the power of McClellan as a vote-getter in the state. Pryor said Boswell had no record and that he should be given the law.

Muskie Still Sees a Future in Campaign

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

AP Political Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP) —

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie has been clobbered again, but claims his campaign has turned the corner and "we are on our way up again."

His latest defeats in two primaries cast considerable doubt.

As in the earlier Florida and Wisconsin contests, Muskie ran poorly Tuesday in the Pennsylvania and Massachusetts presidential preference elections.

In Massachusetts, where polls once indicated Muskie would win with ease, Sen. George McGovern beat him more than 2-to-1.

In Pennsylvania, where Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey won and Gov. George C. Wallace placed second, Muskie and McGovern were in a tight race for third place.

Muskie finds himself on the ropes as the presidential primary parade marches on to Ohio—and a new crisis for the Maine senator.

Two months ago, when he was his party's front-runner, Muskie appeared to be in a strong position in Ohio.

Now, most observers in Ohio make Humphrey the favorite. Both the Humphrey and McGovern camps think that McGovern has moved into second place.

Muskie's hopes rest with Gov. John J. Gilligan, who has built the first strong Ohio Democratic organization in years.

But the lesson so far has been the inability of political leaders to deliver for Muskie.

In Massachusetts, practically every top Democratic leader in the state was on the Maine senator's at-large delegate slate. It was losing to the relatively unknown McGovern candidates.

In Pennsylvania, Muskie had the all-out support of Gov. Milton J. Shapp. It helped little.

Muskie said Tuesday anyone who wants the Democratic nomination is "going to have to fight like hell..."

It appears that Muskie will "have to fight like hell" to even get back into the thick of the race.

By Oswald & James Jacoby

One of the most important concepts of modern bidding is the all-purpose cue bid. You bid your opponent's suit to show a good hand. There are times when one of these modern cue bids succeeds in completely confusing your partner but this business of confusing your partner is not confined to complicated bids. We have seen the simplest bids lead to plenty of trouble.

When these fancy bids work they really do. Look at this 24 high card point slam bid against an opening heart bid as an example.

North's two-heart call was one of those cue bids. He was going to game and wanted to suggest a slam. South had a very sound overcall and decided to cue-bid right back to show his own slam interest. North confirmed spades as the suit. South cue-bid in diamonds to show first round control and North felt strong enough to show the club ace with a five-club call.

It should be noted that

Send $1 for JACOBY MODERN book to: "Win at Bridge," (c/o this newspaper), P.O. Box 489, Radio City Station, New York, N.Y. 10019.

while each player cue-bid in hearts, neither one had first round control and each one showed he didn't. North could have bid four hearts over his partner's four diamonds. When he didn't, he denied that control. Similarly, South could have bid five hearts over five clubs if he could handle the first lead in that suit.

How did South know that his partner held the ace and king of spades? Easy. North would not have gone past game on his own hook without both those cards.

(NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

♥CARD Sense♦♦

The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
1 ♥	1 ♠	Pass	1 ♠
	Pass	Pass	?

You, South, hold:
♠A654 ♥K632 ♦Q107 ♣54

What do you do now?
A—Bid one no-trump. With nine high-card points and a heart stopper, you don't want to sell out to one heart.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Your partner raises you to two no-trump. What do you do now?
